Stop AIDS. Keep the Promise!

WORLD AIDS DAY 2006
10th Annual Event

SPONSORED BY THE COLLEGES IN COOPERATION
WITH THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK OFFICE OF HEALTH SERVICES
To end the pandemic means keeping our promises and commitments in the fight against HIV and AIDS. That is why the World AIDS Campaign (WAC) has chosen the following as its theme from 2005-2010: “Stop AIDS. Keep the Promise.” According to UNAIDS estimates for 2005, there were more than 100,000 New Yorkers are living with HIV. As many as 1 in 4 don’t know they’re infected. There is still no vaccine, and still no cure. Thanks to new medications and early treatment, people with HIV are feeling better and living longer — holding jobs, raising families, doing well.
