CUNY Sport Offerings

All CUNY schools are members of the CUNY Athletic Conference. CUNYAC championship tournaments in all sports are held on the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program. The Commissioner’s Cup—one for four-year colleges and one for community colleges—is presented each year to the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program. Additionally, CUNYAC utilizes some of the premier venues in New York City for its championship events, such as the National Tennis Center, Icahn Stadium, Metropolitan Oval, and the Armory.

All CUNY schools are members of the CUNYAC. The City University of New York Athletic Conference. Citywide CUNYAC championship tournaments are held on the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program.

Four-year college varsity teams compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), while community college teams belong to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA). All CUNY schools are members of the CUNY Athletic Conference. Citywide championships in all sports are hotly contested and followed closely by CUNY students and the New York City press. The Commissioner’s Cup—one for four-year colleges and one for community colleges—is presented each year to the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program.

Additionally, CUNYAC utilizes some of the premier venues in New York City for its championship events, such as the National Tennis Center, Icahn Stadium, Metropolitan Oval, and the Armory.

Intercollegiate and Intramural Opportunities

Intercollegiate and intramural opportunities are available to students on every CUNY campus. At the varsity level, four-year and community colleges compete on 24 men’s and women’s teams. Four-year college varsity teams compete in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), while community college teams belong to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA). Additionally, CUNYAC utilizes some of the premier venues in New York City for its championship events, such as the National Tennis Center, Icahn Stadium, Metropolitan Oval, and the Armory.

Intercollegiate Opportunities

All CUNY schools are members of the CUNY Athletic Conference. Citywide CUNYAC championship tournaments in all sports are held on the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program. The Commissioner’s Cup—one for four-year colleges and one for community colleges—is presented each year to the college with the best overall intercollegiate athletic program.

Additionally, CUNYAC utilizes some of the premier venues in New York City for its championship events, such as the National Tennis Center, Icahn Stadium, Metropolitan Oval, and the Armory.

Intramural Opportunities

Intramural opportunities are available to students on every CUNY campus. At the intramural level, four-year and community colleges participate in a variety of sports and activities. Intramural programs are designed to provide a fun and challenging atmosphere for students to participate in sports and activities they may not have had the opportunity to play before.