Admission Application

You are considered a freshman applicant if you have not previously attended a college, university and/or proprietary school since graduating high school. As a freshman applicant, apply to one of two programs below.

1. General Freshman: apply online to up to six CUNY colleges with one application and one non-refundable application-processing fee.

2. Macaulay Honors College: apply online to one of seven participating colleges: Baruch, Brooklyn, The City College, College of Staten Island, Hunter, Lehman or Queens. You will receive an admission decision first as a General Freshman, followed by an admission decision for the Macaulay Honors College. For more information, visit http://www.macaulay.cuny.edu.

Selective Programs: please note that programs such as the BA-MD at Brooklyn College, the Sophie Davis School of Biomedical Education, the Architecture program and the Engineering program at The City College require a supplemental application. For details and specific deadlines please visit www.cuny.edu/deadlines.

Admission Review Process

At CUNY, we want to ensure each student’s academic success. The admission review process provides us with an opportunity to examine your academic record, which includes: academic units, grades/grade trends and standardized test scores (NY State Regents, SAT and/or ACT). Please review the Freshman Admission Profile to get an idea of the mean grade point average (GPA) and SAT scores for last year’s admitted freshman class. Visit: www.cuny.edu/prepare.

APPLICATION POSTMARK DEADLINES

Admission Application, application processing fee and all supporting documents must be postmarked by the date indicated. Applications received after this date may be considered on a space-available basis.

General Freshman Admission
- Fall: February 1
- Spring: September 15

Macaulay Honors College Admission
- Fall only: December 1

For more information on application deadlines and admission decision notification dates please visit www.cuny.edu/deadlines.

Section 7: Educational History
Enter the credential (type of diploma) you will receive upon graduation (i.e. general diploma, regents diploma, etc.) and any additional high schools/secondary schools that you have attended. CUNY does not accept the IEP diploma. Students with an IEP diploma must earn a GED before they apply to CUNY.

Section 8: Review And Finalize
Before you submit your application, be sure to review each section for accuracy. This is the last section that will enable you to reset your application by using the Start Over feature.

Macaulay Honors College Applicants
You may select only one Macaulay Honors College choice.

Section 4: Recommendations
Two letters of recommendation are required for all Macaulay applicants. Have your recommender’s name and email address ready.

Section 5: Essay
Two essay responses are required. We recommend that you prepare your essays in a word program, then copy and paste into the Admission Application. Visit www.cuny.edu/prepare for essay questions.

Section 6: Background Information
List your current senior year courses, college level and/or honors coursework, extracurricular activities, employment history, and special talents, interests, and/or awards.

Section 7 and 8: Additional Information (optional)
Provide information about your family and background.

Section 9: Review and Finalize
Before you submit your application, be sure to review each section for accuracy. This is the last section that will enable you to reset your application by using the Start Over feature.

Step 4: Pay Your Application-Processing Fee
All freshman applicants must pay a non-refundable $65.00 application-processing fee. The easiest and fastest way to pay the fee is online by credit card using a Visa or MasterCard. You may also mail your fee with a check or money order payable to CUNY/UAPC or you may submit a CUNY fee waiver. Please write your name and Application Control Number on your check, money order or CUNY fee waiver and send with your Application Fee Return Receipt included in your Application Summary Package. Please allow at least four to six weeks for processing when sending payment by mail.

» CUNY FEE WAIVER
CUNY does not accept any other type of fee waiver including waivers distributed by the College Board or any other organization. A very limited quantity of CUNY fee waivers are provided to high school counselors/college advisors to be distributed to students with the most financial need. To request a CUNY fee waiver, please see your counselor/college advisor at your high school as soon as possible. Once the supply of CUNY fee waivers is exhausted, no additional waivers will be provided to the high school.

Step 5: Print Your Application Summary Package
After you submit the Admission Application be sure to download and print your Application Summary Package, which includes your Application Control Number, a summary of your Admission Application, and important forms that must be used when sending paper transcripts, payment and/or other supporting documents by mail.

Record your Application Control Number here: W [Application Control Number]

» Notes:
Send Your Required Supporting Documents to CUNY/UAPC

Do not send any documents listed below to the individual college(s) as it will cause a delay in the review of your application.

After you submit your Admission Application, you may be required to submit additional documents in support of your application. In order to match your supporting documents to your Admission Application, it is important that you:

1. Attach your supporting documents to the appropriate forms included in your Application Summary Package.
2. Record your Application Control Number on each supporting document.
3. Send all of your documents to CUNY/UAPC together in a single envelope.

NYC Department of Education (DOE) High School Transcript

If you are currently attending a NYC DOE high school, do not* send a paper transcript. Instead, you must enter your nine-digit OSIS number in Section 2 of the Admission Application. This will enable us to retrieve your transcript after your application has been submitted and the non-refundable application-processing fee has been received.

* Students currently attending one of the following NYC DOE schools must send paper copies of transcripts (see instructions below under All Other U.S. High School Students): Bronx Preparatory Charter School, City-As-School, Institute for Collaborative Education, New Heights Academy Charter School, Renaissance Charter School (Queens), Satellite Academy, The Facing History High School, Urban Academy Laboratory School, Williamsburg Charter School and all high schools that offer a GED program.

If you completed a portion of your education outside the NYC DOE but within the U.S., please make certain that your NYC DOE transcript indicates coursework and grades completed at all previously attended high schools. If coursework and grades are not included on your NYC DOE transcript, a paper copy of your original transcript from each previously attended high school is required.

If your record includes education completed outside the U.S., a copy of your foreign transcript in its original language is required. If your transcript is in a language other than English, an English translation is also required.

When sending transcripts to CUNY/UAPC, please attach to the High School Transcript Request form included in your Application Summary Package.

All Other U.S. High School Transcript

If you are currently attending a U.S. high school outside the NYC DOE, an official paper transcript must be sent directly to CUNY/UAPC from the high school in a sealed, school-issued envelope.

If you attend more than one U.S. high school, please make certain that your transcript indicates coursework and grades completed at all previously attended high schools. If coursework and grades are not included on your transcript, a copy of your original transcript from each previously attended high school is also required.

If your record includes education completed outside the U.S., a copy of your foreign transcript in its original language is also required. If your transcript is in a language other than English, an English translation is also required. Visit www.cuny.edu/sezou for English Translation Guidelines.

When sending transcripts to CUNY/UAPC, please attach to the High School Transcript Request form included in your Application Summary Package.

SAT/ACT Score Report

SAT/ACT scores are required if you are applying to a four-year college. To request SAT/ACT scores, use the CUNY institutional code (2950). You do not need to use both the CUNY institutional code and a specific CUNY college code. We will also accept SAT/ACT scores sent by your high school counselor/college advisor.

When sending test scores to CUNY/UAPC, please attach to the Document Return Receipt form included in your Application Summary Package.

Letters of Recommendation and Essays/Personal Statements

Macaulay Honors College applicants are required to submit two letters of recommendation and two essay responses via the Admission Application.

If you are a General Freshman applicant and you would like to submit letters of recommendation and/or a personal statement in support of your application, you may do so by mailing the documents to CUNY/UAPC.

When sending these documents to CUNY/UAPC, please attach to the Document Return Receipt form included in your Application Summary Package.
