The Graduate Center and branch campuses plans for the CARES Student Emergency Grants
(These plans are subject to change)

GRD: We currently have two plans, pending an agreement with the PSC regarding health insurance for some of our students who do not currently qualify. On both plans, we will target students who were:

- Enrolled full-time in degree programs for spring 2020
- Making Satisfactory Progress
- Filed a 19-20 FAFSA
- Meet all Title IV eligibility requirements (Citizenship, selective service, etc)
- Have a $0 estimated family contribution on the 19-20 FAFSA

As of today, we had 156 students who met this criteria.

PLAN A: $202,917 is allocated to the 156 students using the criteria above, resulting in each student receiving a grant of $1300.75. [On this plan, no funding is available from the CARES Act fund for health insurance.]

PLAN B: $202,917 is divided into two parts: $100,000 is allocated to students needing health insurance in accordance with the plan developed with, and accepted by, the PSC (with the matching funds commitment). $102,917 is used to provide the 156 students with grants equaling $659.72.

SOJ: Awarded $171.29 to each of the 78 students enrolled for spring who were making SAP, filed a 19-20 FAFSA and met all Title IV eligibility requirements. Due to rounding, there is $0.38 remaining.

SLU: Awarded $278.40 to each of the 77 students enrolled for spring who were making SAP, filed a 19-20 FAFSA and met all Title IV eligibility requirements. Due to rounding, there is $0.20 remaining.

SPS: Pending.

SPH: Award amount: $500 is the amount that every eligible student enrolled in Spring 2020 gets. This includes full-time and part-time students in credit-bearing programs.

EFC Brackets: Based on the effective family contribution (EFC) amounts determined by financial aid, students with an EFC of 0-5000.

Student Eligibility: Based on guidance from the U.S. Department of Education to be eligible, students must have been matriculated in a degree program, must be eligible to submit a FAFSA as a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, and cannot have been enrolled in a fully online (distance education) program.

Campus Allocations: $62,549

Number of Students Awarded: 124
SPH awarding formula
